Discover your cruise

> Explore Croatia's breathtaking Dalmatian coast on an 8-day luxury small-ship cruise from Dubrovnik to Omiš. Discover the natural beauty of Mljet, the medieval streets of Korčula, the authentic charm of Vis, vibrant Hvar, peaceful Milna on Brač and historic Split. Enjoy picturesque island cruising, refreshing swimming stops and relaxed Mediterranean hospitality before concluding your journey in Omiš.

Day-by-day itinerary

DAY 1 Dubrovnik - embarkation

Your unforgettable Adriatic cruise begins in Dubrovnik, one of the most beautiful historic cities on the Mediterranean and a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

An organised transfer from Dubrovnik Airport or your accommodation in Dubrovnik takes you to the port, where embarkation begins at 14:00.

Upon arrival, the crew and Cruise Director welcome you aboard with refreshing drinks and snacks, followed by an introduction to the ship and a safety briefing.

Spend the afternoon exploring Dubrovnik's magnificent Old Town, famous for its imposing medieval city walls, elegant limestone streets and spectacular Adriatic setting. Stroll along Stradun, discover charming historic squares and admire landmarks such as the impressive Lovrijenac Fortress.

Guests wishing to learn more about Dubrovnik's fascinating history may choose an optional guided walking tour.

In the evening, enjoy dinner on board and settle into your comfortable cabin as your Adriatic adventure begins.

Overnight: Dubrovnik
Meals: Dinner

DAY 2 Dubrovnik - Mljet National Park - Pomena

After breakfast, depart Dubrovnik and begin your scenic cruise towards Mljet, one of the greenest and most peaceful islands along the Croatian Adriatic coast.

Enjoy beautiful views of southern Dalmatia and a refreshing swimming stop in a secluded bay, where the crystal-clear waters invite you to relax and enjoy the Mediterranean sunshine.

Lunch is served on board as you continue towards Mljet, an island renowned for its dense pine forests, pristine nature and tranquil atmosphere.

Upon arrival, enjoy free time to explore the island at your own pace. Mljet National Park is particularly famous for its two interconnected saltwater lakes, Veliko Jezero and Malo Jezero, surrounded by lush Mediterranean vegetation.

Guests may choose an optional visit to the national park, including walking, cycling or exploring the scenic lake surroundings. Entrance fees and optional excursions are not included in the cruise price.

Enjoy a peaceful evening surrounded by the beautiful natural scenery of Mljet.

Overnight:Pomena, Mljet Island
Meals: Breakfast and lunch

DAY 3 Pomena - Korčula

After breakfast, continue your Adriatic island-hopping journey towards Korčula, one of Croatia's most picturesque and historically significant islands.

During the cruise, enjoy a refreshing swimming stop in a sheltered bay, surrounded by the spectacular natural beauty of the Dalmatian archipelago.

Lunch is served on board before arriving in Korčula during the afternoon.

The beautifully preserved medieval Old Town of Korčula is often described as "Little Dubrovnik" thanks to its impressive stone architecture, fortified walls and charming historic atmosphere.

Explore the narrow streets, picturesque squares and elegant historic buildings that reflect centuries of Venetian influence and maritime heritage.

Admire the magnificent Cathedral of St. Mark, stroll along the scenic waterfront or relax at one of the town's charming Mediterranean cafés.

An optional guided walking tour may be available for guests wishing to learn more about Korčula's fascinating history and cultural traditions.

Spend the evening at leisure in this beautiful island town.

Overnight: Korčula
Meals: Breakfast and lunch

DAY 4 Korčula - Vis

After breakfast in Korčula, sail west towards Vis. A swimming stop in a clear-water bay breaks up the journey, while lunch is served on board amid the island scenery.

Vis has a distinctive history: its former role as a military base limited access for many years, helping preserve the atmosphere of its fishing communities. Once in town, explore the waterfront or find a quiet place to relax.

Guests looking for an additional activity may choose an optional excursion to the Blue Cave on nearby Biševo, subject to suitable sea conditions. An optional military heritage tour is another way to learn about the island's past. Both options depend on availability and carry additional charges.

Overnight: Vis
Meals: Breakfast and lunch

DAY 5 Vis - Hvar

After breakfast, depart Vis and continue your island-hopping adventure towards Hvar, one of Croatia's most celebrated Adriatic destinations.

During the journey, enjoy spectacular coastal scenery and a refreshing swimming stop in one of the beautiful bays along the route.

Lunch is served on board before arriving in Hvar Town during the afternoon.

Hvar is renowned for its elegant Mediterranean atmosphere, historic architecture and lively waterfront, where centuries-old stone buildings overlook one of the Adriatic's most picturesque harbours.

Explore the charming Old Town independently, stroll through St. Stephen's Square and admire the impressive cathedral, historic palaces and picturesque narrow streets.

Guests interested in discovering more about the island's cultural heritage may choose an optional guided walking tour.

Spend the evening enjoying Hvar's distinctive atmosphere, with plenty of time to explore its beautiful waterfront and traditional restaurants.

Overnight: Hvar
Meals: Breakfast and lunch

DAY 6 Hvar - Milna

After breakfast, leave Hvar and enjoy a scenic cruise towards the island of Brač, famous for its picturesque coastal villages, Mediterranean landscapes and clear turquoise waters.

Along the way, stop for a refreshing swim in a beautiful Adriatic bay, with time to relax and enjoy the spectacular island scenery.

Continue towards Milna, a peaceful harbour town situated on the western coast of Brač Island.

Known for its traditional Dalmatian stone houses, sheltered natural harbour and charming waterfront, Milna offers an authentic introduction to the relaxed lifestyle of Croatia's islands.

Enjoy free time to explore the village, stroll along the picturesque harbour or simply relax in the peaceful Mediterranean surroundings.

In the evening, return to the ship for a special Captain's Dinner, a memorable occasion celebrating the flavours and hospitality of the Adriatic.

Enjoy a relaxing evening in beautiful Milna.

Overnight:Milna, Brač Island
Meals: Breakfast and Captain's Dinner

DAY 7 Milna - Split - Omiš

After breakfast, depart Milna and cruise towards Split, one of Croatia's most fascinating historic cities and an important cultural centre of the Dalmatian coast.

The historic heart of Split is built around the magnificent Diocletian's Palace, constructed at the beginning of the 4th century for the Roman Emperor Diocletian and now recognised as a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Enjoy free time to explore the Old Town independently, wander through its ancient stone streets, discover charming squares and admire the impressive Roman and medieval architecture.

Take a leisurely walk along the famous Riva waterfront, lined with Mediterranean cafés and offering beautiful views across the harbour.

Guests wishing to learn more about Split's remarkable history may choose an optional guided walking tour.

Lunch is served on board before continuing your journey towards Omiš, a picturesque coastal town dramatically positioned between the Adriatic Sea, the Cetina River and towering limestone mountains.

Once an important stronghold of the legendary Dalmatian pirates, Omiš is today renowned for its beautiful natural surroundings and charming historic centre.

Spend your final evening enjoying the peaceful atmosphere of this picturesque seaside destination.

Overnight:Omiš
Meals: Breakfast and lunch

DAY 8 Omiš - disembarkation

The Dubrovnik-to-Omiš Adriatic Paradise cruise concludes with breakfast on board in Omiš.

Disembark after breakfast and say goodbye to the crew. An organised transfer continues to Split Airport or to accommodation in Split, according to the transfer arrangements confirmed for your booking.

The route has brought you north through the Dalmatian islands, from Dubrovnik and Mljet to Vis and the Split area. Omiš is the final cruise port; the onward journey to Split is by road.

Meals: Breakfast
End of cruise: Omiš
